Little Ones Making Known Their Wants for Christmas.

Everything wanted by the children of Washington is made known in their letters to Santa Claus, which have poured into the Washington Times office in a steady stream for the last two weeks. The little misses and fellows seem to have located the jolly old sport's whereabouts, and once the trail was blazed they hastened to follow it. Each letter has a separate and distinct want, and every one is couched differently, but containing the old familiar terms of endearment usually addressed to the children's patron saint. All writers say "I am a good little boy" or "I am a good little girl and I love you." If this be true, there seems great probability that Kriss Kringle will halt his snowflaked reindeer at each and every chimney and descend to leave the toys and goodies craved the most by the authors of the letters, which follow:

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl, eight years old, I want a Teddy bear, pair of skates, and a sly, box of writing paper, and little envelopes and a pretty Xmas tree, a large paper Santa Claus, and a little doll baby. I have three big dolls, but I want a little doll and anything that you think I like. I am only in the third grade, and I can't write good. I guess you can understand that. I live at 221 I street southwest. My name is Marie Jackson. Good-by dear Santa Claus. I wish you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy, eight years old, and will you please bring me a tool chest with tools and a sled and a cap, and a game, a box of handkerchiefs, too. From your friend, CHARLES S. WOLITZ, 604 13th st. ne.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl, four years old, and would like you to bring me for Christmas a tricycle, a little doll table, and two little chairs, and a set of dishes and a big doll, and please bring little brother Herbert, an ice wagon and a horse, and bring my little baby brother a Teddy bear and some other little toys to play with. Don't forget to bring me a Christmas tree and plenty of oranges, candy, and nuts. Now Santa please bring me what I want, and I will always love you. From your little friend, GRACIE WOLITZ, 604 13th st. ne.

Wants Doll and Carriage. Please bring me a doll and a baby carriage, and I have 2 brothers and 2 sisters, which I wish you would bring something to. I live in first cottage on 10 st., which I hope you will find. RUTH MOFFIT.

Dear Santa: My name is Helen Strudley. I am 7 years old and I live at 205 Q street northwest. I would like you to bring me a ironing board and an iron, a little book, a small doll, white Teddy bear—not a 10 cent one, please, Santa, for they are so small. Please send me a dresser for my doll. If you can and dress my old doll up in pink. The one you brought me last Christmas was with the little red coat and hat. Good bye, Dear Santa. Hoping you are well. HELEN STRUDLEY, 205 Q street northwest.

My Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a doll knife and fork set, a Teddy bear, a nice big doll with long light curly hair, a little lamp, and most of all, a little sled. I want to fill my stocking full of good things. I am a little girl, just seven years of age. I am afraid you won't come because I don't live in the city. I will be very much disappointed, if you don't come and bring me what I have asked for. Mamma will open the door for you, if you can't come down the chimney, as I will be fast asleep. Wishing you a merry Christmas, I am your little friend, EDNA MAY HARDING, Mills avenue, North Langdon, D. C.

My Dear Santa Claus: I thought I would write you a few lines to tell you what I want for Christmas, as all my playmates have written you one. I am a little girl having no mother. I want a pair of ball-bearing skates, a doll, a set of dishes, a Teddy bear. I hope I am not asking too much of you. I have a little cousin living with me; please do not forget us. I remain your loving friend, GENEVIEVE DAVIS, 153 Harrison St., Anacostia, D. C.

Gives Time to Make Things. Dear Santa Claus: I thought I would tell you in time so that you could make the things before you make your visit. I would be very glad if you would leave me a wagon, a boat, and a pair of skates. And my little sister, who is not old enough to write you a letter. So she asked me to tell you what she wanted. She wanted a Teddy Bear and a doll. Remember us. We are your good friends, HAROLD RICHARDSON, 78 S street northwest.

Dear Santa Claus: Our names are Collin and Mary Macpherson, we live at 32 E street northwest, Washington, D. C. We have been talking with Mamma and Papa about Christmas, and about the things that we would like you to bring us. Now, Santa, there are so many things that we would like that we have decided to leave it to you to decide for us, and to bring what ever you think best, and we know what ever you bring, we will please us all right. And next Christmas.

MISS ANNA HELD,

As She Appears in One of the Attractive Gowns Worn in "The Parisian Model."

All Members of Company Costumed in Attractive Style.

Anna Held may always be depended upon to show a dazzling array of costumes, not only in her own stage wardrobe, but in that of every member of her company, from principals to the chorus.

In "The Parisian Model," however, Miss Held seems to have more opportunity for filling the feminine mind with wonder, and perhaps the feminine heart with envy, for the gowns are the most stunning and the smartest that this fascinating little French actress has ever shown.

Rare Black Satin. The first one is a rare quality of black satin, a princess that outlines and clings to the figure in perfectly fitted lines. It is cut in a V front and back, with black velvet ribbon following the outlines and falling in long sash ends down the back; the short puffed sleeves are of fine black net; the vestette set in is of embroidered net lace, run with black baby velvet ribbon. Another gown she tries on is a cream cloth with a filmy lace empire bodice, from which falls toward the back an empire lace coat.

The last is of the fluffiest white chiffon, also a princess. The yoke part and sleeves and the bottom of the dress are trimmed with spangled net and ribbon embroidery. With them she wears her famous slippers, which are of brown satin, the heels a solid mass of diamonds, and worn with brown silk open-work and lace stockings. The gowns are said to be wonderful creations, and are worn by Miss Held in that smart, graceful style that is all her own.

Eight Other Models. Besides Miss Held there are eight show girls who pose as Parisian models in beautiful French frocks. One wears a mousseline de sole empire with coat back of cream lace spangled with gold and a cloth hat with Paradise plumes falling from the side and held up by one large green rose in front. Another has a gown of the new pomegranate shade, the Louis XV coat of gold spangled lace; the picture hat is of white with long plumes in the pomegranate color. Another, a white lace frock with a touch of pink choux here and there, the coat back of white lace, the white hat trimmed with green feathers. Still another, a princess of silver cloth with choux of pink and white hat with pink feathers. Another, a light blue silver-spangled chiffon with an empire grille of orange velvet bow in the front.

is going to buy me a red pocketbook, as he is awful good to me. Good night. Don't forget me. DELIA MARGRETT KING, 1519 E street S. E.

Dear Old Santa: I am a little boy nine years old, and wish you would please bring me a book of Robinson Crusoe and a set of cars, No. 40. Yours truly, LEO JANEZECK, 1519 E street S. E.

My Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a table and set of dishes a little table a piano a bureau a large doll and a rocking chair please bring me these things and I will be a good girl for a whole year. Your little friend, Sophia Simms, 1501 3rd St. N. W.

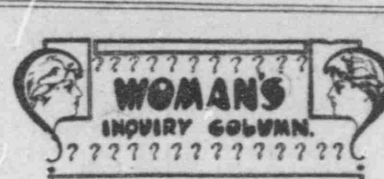

Wants Thick Story Book. Dear Santa Claus: please bring me a Irish mail, a set of soldiers, and a pair of skates, and some cars go around on a track. A thick story book, and a engine house. A nice little horse and wagon, and a sleigh. Good by Dear Santa Claus. I am a little boy just 7 years old in the second grade. My name is Georgie Schwab I live 802 G st. N. E.

The Power of Habit

The power of habit was strikingly illustrated not long ago in a shirt waist factory. One woman who had done nothing but sew up the seams of sleeves for four years was taken off that particular job and was asked to run up seams in the body of the waists. She complained that she could not work. "But what is the difference?" asked the foreman. "There is nothing but a straight seam here, just the same as you have been used to." "I know," replied the woman, with true feminine logic, "but it isn't sleeves." And it did, indeed, prove to be a fact that, owing to her four years of steady work on sleeves, it took her fully that many weeks to overcome her nervousness sufficiently to run the machine at her accustomed speed when sewing another part of the waist.—Exchange.
